

Are You Our Next Volunteer Ombudsman?

If you have a passion for wanting to help the residents living in skilled, assisted living and residential care communities, we have a volunteer job waiting just for you. You can become involved with VOYCE to help improve their quality of life.

As a volunteer, you will make a real difference

- Visiting individuals who live in a long-term care community at a location convenient for you each week
- Talking to residents and personally getting to know them on an individual basis
- Giving residents an opportunity to voice concerns about the quality of their lives
- Investigating and advocating for resolutions to resident needs by working with staff caregivers
- Following up with residents to make sure they continue to receive care that meets their specific needs

VOYCE, formerly the Long Term Care Ombudsman Program, depends on dedicated volunteers to advocate for a high quality of life for those in long-term care settings.

As a volunteer, you will receive...

- Ombudsman volunteer on line training before starting at your location
- Quarterly in-service training and monthly professional development on trends and issues in long-term care
- Regular communication and support from a Regional Ombudsman Coordinator

Not Sure if this is what you are looking for? Give us a call, we have other volunteer opportunities including office volunteers, policy volunteers, and more.
